2006 Season Outlook for the Yellow Jackets

Expectations are always high surrounding Yellow Jacket soccer and CU plans on being a key player in the post-season again. The kickers welcome back veteran talent from last year's 15-4-1 club that finished second in the American Midwest Conference South Division and advanced to the NAIA Region IX Final Four.

"We have nine starters back so we have a lot of experience," said Ben Belleman, who has won 71 matches in five years as head coach of the Yellow Jackets. "We have good depth and our freshmen class has shown itself to be better than expected. The schedule is challenging and we are excited to see what we can do."

Leading scorer Justin Benz, who netted 13 goals, returns to pace the offense. The senior forward earned a spot on the NAIA Region IX Team and the AMC South Division First Team.

NCCAA All-American Jesse Fox will patrol the midfield. He scored six goals with a team-high 10 assists as a junior last fall.

All-AMC South Division Second Team forward Ken Davis is back for his junior year. He rated third on the squad in scoring with six goals and nine assists.

Senior midfielder Grant Knight returns to the roster as a team captain after missing last season with an injury. He will be joined by classmates Phil Shimer and Ryan Stutzman in captains' roles. Other seniors are Iain Bryant, Andrew Elliott, Elliot Moore, and Jon Taylor.

The two starters not returning left some big shoes to fill. Phil Ellis, the NCCAA Kyle Rote, Jr. Player of the Year, graduated after patrolling the back line and All-NAIA Region IX goalkeeper Luke Marietta is not back. However, the Jackets will respond with other options.

"Our goals against average may go up, but our best defense may be how much we keep possession of the ball," Belleman explained. "We are confident that our keepers and defenders will improve throughout the season. We also need to score more goals than we have in the past and we have the players to do it."

Belleman routinely plays a demanding schedule and this year is no exception. Perennial NAIA power and defending NAIA Region IX champion Rio Grande is pre-season ranked No. 4 in the country. The Redmen head up a tough American Midwest Conference South Division. AMC North member Notre Dame is rated No. 17. Non-conference opponents dotting the schedule include No. 13 Bethel (Ind.) and No. 19 Mid-Continent (Ky.).

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts the Siena Heights University Saints in a non-conference season-opening contest tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

The Yellow Jackets look to start the 2006 campaign on a positive note as they square off with the Saints for just the third-time ever. Siena Heights is already 3-0 on the season with victories over Aquinas, Walsh and Goshen. The Saints posted a 10-10 overall mark last fall.

Senior forward Justin Benz will again lead the Yellow Jacket offensive attack. He scored a team-leading 13 goals in 2005 and was named to the All-NAIA Region IX Team, the All-NCCAA Midwest Region Team and the All-AMC South Division First Team.

Senior midfielder Jesse Fox will provide support on both the offense and defense. The NCCAA All-American ranked second on last season's squad with six goals and a team-high 10 assists.

Senior forward Grant Knight is a welcome sight back to the field after missing the last two seasons with injury. Knight spent the summer playing with the Cascade Surge in the Premier Development League in Salem, Oregon.

Junior forward Ken Davis is back for his third season with the Jackets and looks to return to full strength after suffering a leg injury while also playing for the Cascade Surge this past summer. Davis was CU's third-leading scorer in 2005.

The Cedarville goalie duties will be filled by juniors David Howdyshell, John Norton and sophomore Andrew Bauer.

The Saints, members of the Wolverine Hoosier Athletic Conference, have been led in their first three matches by Matt Konopinski. The senior midfielder is off to a quick start having scored two goals along with three assists for six points. Four other Saint players have scored a goal in their first three contests - Brent Blonshine, Ryan Hansinger, Joel Parrish and Jeremy Romer.

The defense has allowed just two goals with senior keeper Jason Blickensdorf holding down the nets for SHU.

Cedarville and Siena Heights have split the only other two meetings between the schools.
